

BASSICALLY ARI

ONE SHEET

About Me

BassicallyAri is a Nashville-based bassist whose work ranges classical, jazz, and folk traditions. She's known for her grounded tone, clear communication, and genre versatility. Whether performing in chamber orchestras or folk groups, she brings warmth, clarity and a deep commitment to shared musical experiences.

Highlights

- Performed and won Belmont University Christian Showcase (2022 & 2023)
- Performed at Belmont University Best of the Best Showcase (2023 & 2024)
- Appeared in "NUMB" music video (Sklyar Grey & Tommee Proffit)

Availabilities

Recording Sessions

Producers hire Ari for her warm tone, rhythmic clarity, and genre-spanning versatility on bass.

Live Performances

Bands and ensembles book Ari for her dynamic stage presence and instinctive musical connection

Content Creation

Creators team with Ari for bass covers and behind-the-scenes clips that add vibe and depth to every post.

Upcoming Shows

- Andrea Bocelli Concert - Fisher Center for the Performing Arts (Oct. 16)
- World Fiddle & Bluegrass Fall Concert - Massey Performing Arts Center (Nov. 5)
- Max Whitemore's Senior Recital-Massey Performing Arts Center (Nov. 8)
- Christmas at Belmont - Fisher Center for the Performing Arts (Nov. 21 & Nov. 22)

SOCIALS

Instagram: @bassically_ari
TikTok: @ariannastoker
Facebook: @ariannastoker

CONTACT INFO

Email: ariannastokerevans@gmail.com
Phone: (214) 532-6469
Website: www.bassicalyari.com